

fringeNYC<sup>SM</sup>

WHAT THEY SAID ABOUT

"(FRINGENYC) HAS BECOME SOMETHING OF A SUNDANCE FESTIVAL OF THE THEATER WORLD."

TIME OUT NEW YORK

"Just a few weeks before the Broadway theater season begins this fall, we're reminded that some of the most interesting and thought-provoking work on stage happens nowhere near midtown"

NEW YORK TODAY

"Smart folks simply grab a cab to the Lower East Side for this summertime madhouse of high, low, and other stages of culture."

STAR-LEDGER

"It's a frenzied freak show of flesh, fornication, feminism and fratricide! Ladies and Gentleman, the Fantabulous New York International Fringe Festival!"

THE RESIDENT

"entertainment that, while sometimes ragged at the edges, challenges children more than, say, Barney"

TIME OUT NEW YORK

"New York's wildest theater festival offers traditional and cutting-edge shows, plus a street scene you won't believe"

AMERICAN WAY, AMERICAN AIRLINES IN-FLIGHT MAGAZINE

"Programs are geared to children who know there is more to entertainment than 'Once upon a time'."

THE NEW YORK TIMES

"those looking for the future of theater will not want to miss the funky Fringe Festival, the annual Lower East Side marathon featuring the best of the performing arts"

HX MAGAZINE

"OK - you know you're going to the Fringe Festival - you just can't decide what to see."

THE NEW YORK THEATRE EXPERIENCE

"While great, alternative theater is put on every day in Manhattan, sometimes it takes a high-profile festival, like this one is becoming, to draw larger crowds to see it."

THE RESIDENT

"The wonderfully freaky New York International Fringe Festival continues its parade of shows downtown"

NEW YORK POST

"The New York International Fringe Festival offers a plethora of downtown family theater events"

DAILY NEWS

"...the premiere showcase for emerging theatre companies and performance artists."

CELEBRITY SERVICE INTERNATIONAL, INC.

"The New York International Fringe Festival is taking Manhattan by storm..."

NEXT

"...a permanent fixture on the New York theater scene."

SHOW BUSINESS

"a festival of experimental theater and dance that has been drawing crowds and attention for the past two years."

THE NEW YORK TIMES

"...154 performance groups from around the world all gleefully thumbing their noses at traditional theater."

NEW YORK POST

"Consider it the Theater Olympics"

SHOUT

"Experimentation, innovation, and pure off-the-wallness appear to be the hallmarks..."

BACKSTAGE

"While great, alternative theater is put on every day in Manhattan, sometimes it takes a high-profile festival, like this one is becoming, to draw larger crowds to see it."

THE RESIDENT

"...plan a weekend on the fringe where the Robert De Niro and Calista Flockharts of tomorrow are performing for $12 a pop."

INTHEATER

"underground theater is alive and well in NYC as the third annual New York International Fringe Festival takes Lower Manhattan by storm"

TIME OUT NEW YORK

"Have you been Fringed?"

PLAYBILL ON LINE